Dear Mr. Brown,

This is in reply to your letter of March 20, 1989 to Mr. Pierre Juneau, President of the CBC, on a number of issues, including environmental sensitivity and your complaint to the Canadian Human Rights Commission.

As you know, you and I had an opportunity to meet some time ago and discuss the issues raised in your letter, and you appeared to be generally satisfied with the meeting and with clarifications provided.

With regard to your closing question, you can be assured, Mr. Brown, that we are making every effort to ensure the best possible workplace for our employees.

Thank you for your interest in the CBC.

Sincerely yours,

Jean-Pierre Blouin
